BIENNIAL TOURS

Chicago Cultural Center Biennial Exhibition Tour

Daily, 10–11 AM

Free tours of the main Biennial exhibition in the Cultural Center will be held daily (except holidays). Explore more than seventy cutting-edge projects produced by architects from around the world.

Tours meet in the CAB bookshop, on the first floor near the Randolph St. entrance.

Chicago Cultural Center, 78 E. Washington St.

Stony Island Arts Bank Tour

Saturdays, 1–2 PM

The Stony Island Arts Bank has recently undergone a radical restoration led by Rebuild Foundation and its artistic director and founder Theaster Gates. This tour includes viewings of the two Biennial projects by Carlos Bunga and Frida Escobedo, as well as an introduction to some of Rebuild Foundation's archives that focus on black history and culture.

Stony Island Arts Bank, 6760 S. Stony Island Ave.

Tour of SC Johnson's Campus and Frank Lloyd Wright's Buildings

Thursdays, 10 AM–6 PM and 3 PM–11 PM

Fridays, 10 AM–5 PM

Saturdays and Sundays, 10 AM–6:30 PM

Throughout the Biennial, free shuttles transport visitors to Racine, Wisconsin to explore SC Johnson corporate headquarters. The tour features Frank Lloyd Wright's Administration Building and Research Tower, as well as the newly refurbished 1940s office of SC Johnson's former president H. F. Johnson Jr. These are the only Wright-designed commercial buildings still in use. Weekend tours also include Wingspread, the home Wright designed for H. F. Johnson Jr. in the late 1930s—the last and largest of Wright's Prairie-style houses.

Shuttles depart from and return to the Chicago Cultural Center. Reservations are required on scjohnson.com/visit

PARTNER TOURS

Chicago Architecture Foundation

CAF offers a vast number of tours on Chicago architecture, all led by certified docents. A set of tours has been selected especially to complement the Biennial. Visit architecture.org/tours for more information and to book tickets.

River Cruise Aboard Chicago's First Lady Cruises

This boat tour reveals how the city grew from a small back-country outpost into one of the world's most important crossroads in less than 100 years.

Sacred Spaces

Chicago's downtown is home to a number of striking and architecturally significant houses of worship, including a church inside a skyscraper.

Historic Skyscrapers

Step back in time to the late 1800s and explore how Chicago went from a city devastated by a great fire to a leader in engineering and design.

Chicago Modern

In the years following World War II, Chicago established itself as a world capital of modern architecture. A tour on the buildings that helped earn Chicago this reputation, from Mies van der Rohe's Federal Center to the brawny expressiveness of the Richard J. Daley Center.

Guided Tours of Charnley-Persky House

Wednesdays and Saturdays, 10 AM–12 PM and 12–2 PM
Designed by Louis Sullivan, the Charnley-Persky House is one of the few remaining buildings that displays the combined talents of Louis Sullivan and his then-draftsman, Frank Lloyd Wright.

Charnley-Persky House, 1365 N. Astor St.

Jane Addams Hull-House Museum Tour

Wednesdays and Sundays, 1–2 PM

The Museum is the dynamic memorial to social reformer Jane Addams, the first American woman to receive the Nobel Peace Prize, and her colleagues whose work changed the lives of their immigrant neighbors as well as national and international public policy.

$5, Jane Addams Hull-House Museum, 800 S. Halsted St.

Second Presbyterian Church Tour

Wednesdays and Saturdays, 1–3 PM

Sundays, 12–2 PM

Chicago's only National Historic Landmark church is an art and architecture treasure with a completely intact 1901 interior.
